Art in Motion Latin Dancers – AIM

Darlin J. Garcia

Born in the Dominican Republic, Darlin has a background in Hip Hop, Bachata, and Merengue. Darlin is recognized as one of the top male salsa dancers in the country. His most notable accomplishments have been placing 1st in the On1 division at the 2008 San Francisco Salsa Congress and 3rd at the 2006 ESPN World Salsa Championships. He is the Director and lead choreographer of Art in Motion Latin Dancers.

Uriel Garcia

Uriel has been dancing Merengue and Bachata since he has been able to walk. He was introduced to Salsa in 2001 at the Atrium Dance Studio and trained under his older brother, Darlin, joining the AIM team in 2005. Uriel, and his partner Rona LeBlanc, won the Salsa Division of the 2006 US National Dance Championships. Uriel and Rona went on to represent Washington, DC and Philadelphia at the 2006 World Salsa Championships.

Lauren Lopez

Lauren was introduced to ballet, jazz and tap at the tender age of three. In 2006 she was accepted into Nyce Stylez Hip Hop Dance Company and has performed at Six Flags Great Adventure, Sesame Place, Philadelphia Sixers/Eagles games, and numerous fashion shows. In 2006 Lauren began dancing for Mas Estilo teen group under the choreography of Darlin Garcia. She is the youngest member of the AIM team.

Elizabeth Becerra

Elizabeth's passion for dancing began in March of 2001, where she began taking classes at the Atrium Dance Studio. After extensive training and classes with Darlin Garcia and other members of Art in Motion, Elizabeth joined the team in 2007. She plans to further her dancing career and travel around the world to perform and to continue to learn.

Liquid Silver Productions – LSP

AL "Liquid Silver" ESPINOZA

Al Espinoza, also known as "Liquid Silver" combines salsa with his 20 years of pop locking, break dancing and hip hop to create what is known today as "Millennium Salsa". Al has taught and performed in more than 40 countries all over the globe. His incredible body movements and rhythm have astonished audiences world-wide. Al's countless instructional videos are many of the top-sellers on the Internet today.

Astrid Reyes

Originally from Medellin, Columbia, Astrid has been a member of Dimension Latina, a dance academy dedicated to teaching and performing Colombian style salsa. Astrid has performed in several events with Dimension Latina, including the Miami Salsa Congress and World Salsa Federation Championships. Astrid is currently teaching and performing with Al Espinoza and is a member of Liquid Silver Productions.
